A Hawk Killed by a Railway Engine.

To railway officials it is a well known fact that the engines of high speed expresses kill small and large heavy flying birds, such as partridges and grouse, in great quantities, sometimes carrying their bodies long distances. A few months ago the writer was shown by a locomotive superintendent of one of the principal northern lines a dead bird which, strange to say, though a very rapid flier, had met its doom through the agency of the iron horse. This bird was a sparrow hawk, and it is now stuffed and may be seen in the Carlton road board school museum, Kentish Town.

The driver of the train relates that he was traveling between sixty and seventy miles an hour near Melton, when just on the point of entering a long tunnel he observed fluttering in front of the engine some object which he at first mistook for a rag, but when on leaving the tunnel he went forward he discovered to his astonishment, that it was a sparrow hawk which had become entangled between the handrail and smoke box of the engine, and was held there firmly by the pressure of the wind. It was not quite dead when taken out of this curious deathtrap, though one eye had been destroyed. There is no doubht that it met its death accidentally, as a hawk can fly quicker than the fastest trains travel—so the drivers say, who often observe them flying low down in the hedgerow and keeping up with the train till one unwary small bird, frightened by the noise, flies out of the fence, when the hawk pounces on it and devours it.—Strand Magazine.

Why Birds Migrate.

Why some birds which could pick up food among us all the year around should leave when food is plentiful, while others with similar ways of life remain, is still a mystery. It is easy to understand that a species which preys on fresh water fish and on frogs should seek other quarters when the ponds are frozen and the frogs buried in the clay. But it is not quite so clear why the swallow and the flycatcher leave a region where there is perpetual summer and winged food in abundance, to risk a long journey over sea and land, only to find a great scarcity of the same kind of food. And it is equally puzzling that the seed and fruit eaters who since October have been fattening among the gardens of Algeria and Egypt, should suddenly, in March or April, be seized with such an inordinate craving for a change of diet as to fly 3,000 miles on the chance of picking up the short commons of an English spring.

Perhaps it will be found that immigration is natural to all birds, and is greater or less as circumstances may determine. Every animal shifts its quarters according to the plentifulness or scarcity of food. Even our residents move up and down the country at different periods of the year, living in the lowlands in the winter and in the uplands in the summer, and it is well known that all winter there is a continual drifting of the birds from the Continent to our islands, according to the weather.—London Standard.

Two Narrow Escapes.

Twice in his experience has John B. Obermeyer, of Chicago, owed his life to the practice of carrying papers in his inside pocket. The first time was on a battlefield in the war of the rebellion. Then the muster roll of his company of the Eleventh Pennsylvania volunteers stopped a musket ball fired at random from the enemy's lines. The second time was on Monday, when a bullet from a 38-caliber revolver, fired only six feet distant, and aimed deliberately at his breast, failed to penetrate an envelope filled with bank bills and a passbook in his inside vest pocket.

After this second event Mr. Obermeyer, it is said, looked coolly at the would be assassin, and called him a coward, and invited him to shoot a second time, but the latter stood for a moment irresolute, then, with his hand trembling, laid his revolver on the desk and surrendered to the police.—Philadelphia Ledger.

Soda Water Not So Much in Demand.

An up town dry goods store last summer tried the experiment of giving soda water to its patrons free. An enormous fountain, well equipped for service, was placed in the back part of the store and on each hot day half a dozen attendants were kept busy serving a clamorous, thirsty and never diminishing crowd. One day upward of 7,000 glasses of soda water were drawn from that free fountain. This year the firm charges three cents a glass for its soda water, and as a result the patronage has fallen off to a remarkable extent. On two very hot days a fortnight ago, although the large store was well filled with customers, the soda fountain was at no time overworked.—New York Times.

The Preacher's Industrious Hen.

The Congregational minister in Newington thinks he has the champion hen of the place. She began laying in February, immediately after he first owned her. She kept this up until she went to sitting and hatched out a brood the first part of April. About a week ago she was allowed to run at large with her brood, but returned to the coop during the day and laid an egg, brooding her chickens at night. This she continues to do, laying her egg daily and still caring for her chicks.—Hartford (Conn.) Times.

The coffee crop of Brazil has been so large that the railroads of one of the provinces have for weeks been blocked, every available car being in service, freight depots being crowded and further receipts of coffee being declined.

Melbourne is just emerging from the overwhelming effects of a land boom. All trades are stagnant and the unemployed are clamoring for work.

Queer Earthquake Effects.

An old sheep herder who dwells in a secluded spot in the Sutter county buttes made his annual visit to this city Wednesday, and from him we learn of some phenomenal and interesting circumstances as a result of the earthquake of Tuesday morning.

The lonely camp of the old shepherd is far up in the buttes, and is surrounded with cliffs densely covered with massive rocks and bowlders, which have withstood the storms of ages and furnished mills for the aborigines to grind their acorns and manzanita berries into flour from the remotest antiquity.

The old herder had just emerged from his cabin on this memorable morn, and was gathering kindling with which to prepare his morning meal before turning his flock onto the range for their day's forage, and the wonderful sight he witnessed will never be forgotten. When the trembling began numerous sparks of a bright blue color began issuing from the rocks, caused by the friction as they were tossed to and fro by the surging earth. As the tremors increased the number of sparks did likewise, until at one time the hillsides appeared as one sheet of fire with millions of sparks darting here and there as if dancing for joy. As the trembling subsided the sparks gradually disappeared, and in a moment all was total darkness.

Shortly after the sun had started on its journey in the eastern horizon the attention of the old shepherd was attracted by the great branches of trees which had fallen to the ground, and those which remained intact seemed to horrify the wild birds, as they would attempt to alight, and then, with a frightened scream, would pass rapidly on, only to repeat the caper at the next tree. An investigation proved that millions of lizards and snakes had taken refuge in the trees during their fright and had become so numerous on the projecting branches that they were forced to succumb to the immense weight and fell to the ground. This is the only instance of damage reported in Yuba or Sutter county.—Marysville (Cal.) Democrat.

A Useful Collector of Coals.

Perhaps the following anecdote may be useful to readers whose houses and gardens abut on railways. An eminent "menagerist" lives in a suburb where forty trains pass his garden every hour. The weather was cold, coals were expensive, for the recent strike was just then at its height. The "menagerist," however, was a man of resource; he conceived a plan for utilizing the forty trains an hour.

From his menagerie in town he brought a large Barbary ape, which unfortunate animal was chained to the top of a pole at the end of the garden. The result was as pleasant as owning a colliery, without any wages to pay or fear of floods and explosions. Every stoker—and occasionally a driver—on every train that passed had a shot with a lump of coal at the Barbary ape. The B. A. was never hit, but the garden was littered with coal, which the "menagerist" triumphantly conveyed to his cellars.—London Tit-Bits.

A Well Traveled Letter.

An old member of a well known Breslau institution sent on the 13th of May, 1891, a post card from Cassel, addressed to "Dr. Emin Pacha, in German East Africa." The card contained a poetical allusion to the great traveler, and was signed by a number of other members of the institute. It arrived at Zanzibar on the 14th of June, 1891, and at Bagamoyo on the 16th of that month. The post card was then sent back to Dar-es-Salaam, where it arrived on the 12th of March of this year, and received the following official comment: "Aus dem Innern zuruck. Emin nicht erreichbar." (Returned from the interior. Emin not attainable.) On the 5th of May this same post card found its way back to Cassel and is now in the hands of the sender.—London News.

NEVADA AT THE WORLD'S FAIR.

The Eureka Sentinel says it would be a disgrace to allow our State to go unrepresented at the World's Fair next year. It asks if public spirit and patriotism is dead in this commonwealth? Despairing of official activity in the premises it submits the following proposition in behalf of two gentlemen residing in Eureka, which it hopes the press of the State will take up and push with vigor until a favorable result is attained:

"Two of the finest collections in the world are owned in Eureka, one by Dr. F. J. Schneider and the other by E J. Morrison. These gentlemen will loan the State these valuable mineral cabinets on certain conditions. They want all expenses of transportation, etc., paid, and be allowed to put the exhibit in place and manage the display during the Fair. Mr. Morrison, who is thoroughly scientific in mineralogy and reliable in every way, must be permitted to accompany and have sole charge of the mineral. The collection of specimens at Carson owned by the State, should be added, as they would be cared for and returned by Mr. Morrison, thus making for Nevada the grandest mineral display ever made by any State in the Union, and surpassing in beauty and attractiveness any similar feature in the great exposition. Weeks, some months since, called the attention of World's Fair Commissioners Russell and Haines of this State to the plan herein suggested, and they both concurred with us that it was about the best thing that could be done for the State. No fear as to the cost: Mr. Morrison's time and expenses for the whole Fair will cost, say $2,000; cases for the specimens, to be manufactured on the ground at Chicago, say $500, and the transportation of the ores both ways, say $500 more, making a total, all told of only about $3,000 for the the finest mineral exhibit the world has ever witnessed. Ample space has been allotted to Nevada in the Exposition building. Are we to leave it unoccupied as a reminder to the thousands who pass through the building, that we are the most insignificant community in all the Union? We hope not. Then will not the patriotic press of Nevada take hold and demand that measures be taken to avoid the humiliation and disgrace that must come to the State if we go unrepresented. Only a a few paltry dollars are required—$3,000 will do it but a little more would be better. There are rich men and corporations in abundance who have made money in the State and off our people. A mere trifle, in comparison, from each will meet the case. The mining companies themselves might contribute the amount and never feel it. Will not Governor Colcord formulate some plan of action? And finally we invoke the press to take up the matter and never cease howling until the desired end is accomplished. Nevada must not be 'skunked' at the Chicago Fair."

THE SILVER QUESTION IN CONGRESS.

The silver men in Congress are making honest endeavors to get a free coinage bill through both Houses before the close of the present session. The Stewart bill is to be discussed again in the Senate and if possible forced to a vote before the meeting of the Chicago Convention. It is believed that it will pass the Senate, and some hopes are entertained that it may receive a majority in the House and be sent to the President. That, however, will not be accomplished before the 21st instant, if at all, so it will not affect the financial plank of the Chicago platform, which, it is believed, will be dictated by Wall Street as was done at Minneapolis.

There is a possibility that the silver question may be settled or become a straight party issue in the Presidential campaign. If the Stewart bill should be passed by Congress and signed by the President it will take the silver question out of politics by settling it as a large majority of the people of the South and West as well as of the Silver States want it. That, however, would be too pleasing an ending for a question which has been discussed more or less since 1874, and one in which the people took as much interest in 1878 as they do to-day. It will be more likely that the bill will pass both Houses and be vetoed by the President. Should such be the case, with Harrison on the Republican ticket and Cleveland on the Democratic ticket, the free coinage men of all parties would of necessity have to vote for the Omaha nominee, who will doubtless be pledged by platform and declaration to the free and unlimited coinage of silver.

An exchange says the United States, Great Britain and Germany send the greatest number of letters through the mails. The Universal Postal Union Bureau's report of the annual receipt is: German Empire, 317,136,566f; United States, 315,451,294f, and Great Britain, 246,276,950f. The United States sells more postage stamps, or makes more on them, than any other nation. The bureau reports: United States annual receipts from postage stamps, 298,713,598f; German Empire, 223,330,611f, and Great Britain, 336,993,950f.

Returns from all but four counties in Oregon show that Hermann has a plurality of 5,542 and Ellis a plurality of 3,048 for Congress. Chamberlain (Democrat) has 337 majority for Attorney General. The Legislature stands: Senate—Republicans, 15, Democrats, 14; People's party 1. House—Republicans, 32; Democrats, 26; People's party, 2.

Senator Stewart in reply to the question, "What will the Democrats do with silver?" said they would do the same as the Republicans. "Why," said he, "gold bugs would send two millions if necessary to buy up the whole convention."

BY TELEGRAPH!

News of Importance From Home and Abroad.

The Chicago Convention.

CHICAGO, June 15.—The Democratic National Convention is showing first signs of becoming a thing of life. By to-morrow it will begin to grow until by next Tuesday the biggest convention the Democratic party ever held will be full grown. The Boies managers from Iowa started a boom for their favorite son early this morning by establishing headquarters at the Palmer House, and kept busy during the day sending out documents showing the great popularity Boies. The Cleveland men were not to be outdone by the Hawkeyes and they established similar headquarters at the Grand Pacific and letters and circulars being sent the weak delegates who it is supposed can be won over if Cleveland be shown to be the strongest candidate. The Hill men appear to be on a cold hunt. Only one Hillite is on the ground, but this individual has sufficient enthusiasm for half a dozen and is loudly proclaiming the virtues of his favorite.

The members of the National Committee will begin arriving to-morrow and Friday. The Hill "big four," Richard Crocker, Boss McLaughlin, Edward Murphy and Lieutenant Governor Sheehan, will arrive to-morrow. Probabilities are the entire opposition to Cleveland will be combined and directed by Hill men, who, when convinced there is no possible chance for their man, will center on a dark horse. Strong indications of Cleveland opposition will assist Dan Voorhees in making trouble for Governor Gray in his probable capacity of Vice Presidential candidate with Cleveland. The position which the Illinois delegation are to occupy is still uncertain. Since the State Convention the friends of Colonel William R. Morrison, by skillful management, succeed in securing control of the delegation, and the question now is whether Cleveland, Palmer or Morrison is to have their support despite their instructions.

A rumor was current this afternoon that Senator Vest of Missouri had abandoned the Cleveland forces to which it is understood he belonged. Vest was seen by an Associated Press reporter this evening just before he took the train for the East, when asked to define his position he said; "I am a Democrat and want to see my party nominate a Democrat who can be elected. I am apprehensive that Cleveland cannot carry the State of New York. This unfortunate fight in our party in that States makes me fear we will lose it unless we go outside for a candidate. I speak now because I think the time has come when the Democratic party has a right to ask an expression of opinion from every Democrat. My feeling toward Cleveland has never changed and I regard him now with the same respect and confidence and friendship as I have ever felt, but doubt his power to carry his State"

Senate Proceedings.

WASHINGTON, June 15.—The Senate spent four hours to-day in debate on the Silver bill. Morgan occupied about three-fourths of the time in an elaborate presentation of arguments in support of the measure. He criticised the silver plank in the Minneapolis Convention as timid and irresolute, and he gave it the credit of being a step to the front and as to the coming Chicago Convention Morgan said that Democracy would also step to the front and declare not only that silver should be equal with gold but that it should have the right of free coinage. He was followed by Palmer who moved to strike out all the bill except the first section which fixes the standard of gold and silver dollars, and makes those coins legal tender and permits owners of silver or gold bullion to have it minted for their benefit and without charge.

Stewart spoke in favor of the bill and Cockrell presented figures to prove that just before the Demonetization Act of 1873 the coining of silver dollars had not virtually ceased as is often asserted, but was going on actively. No action was taken on the bill.

Merrill will address the Senate in opposition to the bill to-morrow.

Adjourned.

Conference Committee Disagrees.

WASHINGTON, June 15.—Conferees on the River and Harbor Appropriation bill after being in conference two days failed to reach an agreement and decided to report the fact to the two Houses and ask for instructions. The conferences were able, it is learned, to agree upon nearly all points, including 25 per cent cut in the first years' appropriations for contract projects to which the House conferees was willing to accede, but they disagreed hopelessly upon the two new Oregon and Washington projects. They are both Senate amendments, one appropriating $187,500 for improvements on the Columbia river at three-mile rapids, including the construction of a boat railway around via Dallas, with authority to make a contract for the completion of the work at a total cost of $2,672,856. The other was an amendment appropriating $200,000 for the construction of a ship canal connecting Lake's Union and Washington with Puget Sound.

House Proceedings.

WASHINGTON, June 15.—The House went into Committee of the Whole on the Fortification Appropriation bill. It appropriates $2,412,372. After a short consideration the Committee rose and the bill passed. The Committee then went into Committee of the Whole on the revenue bills. The first bill was called up by Shiveley of Indiana, and was a bill to reduce the duty on tin plate. Shiveley's speech elicited a good deal of applause from his party colleagues. After other speeches the Committee rose and the House adjourned.

Silver Going Up.

WASHINGTON, June 15.—The Treasury Department to-day purchased 508,000 ounces of silver at $0.9020 at $0.9024.

The Senior Hop.

The Class of '92 of the Reno High School is one of the brightest and most energetic that our High School has ever had. It is large and evenly divided between the sexes, eight young ladies and eight young gentlemen. They propose to celebrate their graduation by a grand hop and social, at which they hope to meet all their friends. Our people should give them a good send off—should turn out in force and thus swell the pleasure and finances of these worthy young graduates. See "ad," in another column.

The Pavilion ought to be and doubtless will be crowded.

W. C. T. U. Convention.

The State Convention of the W. C. T. U. will be held at Carson to-day and to-morrow. The delegates elected to represent the Reno Union in the Convention are Mrs. Gillman, Mrs. E. Merrill, Miss Eva Barnes, Miss May Crocker, Miss Julia McGonier, Mrs. B. Clough, Mrs. M. J. Cook, Mrs. A. Banta, Mrs. W. D. Wagar and Mrs. Frank Stewart. The delegates from the Y. W. C. T. U. are Miss Myrtle Sabin, Miss Stella Webster and Miss Maggie Magill. The Convention will be conducted by Mrs. Emily Pitt Stevens.

The Good Work Goes on

The Secretary of the Washoe County Silver League yesterday received fifteen new names to the roll of membership of the Silver League, mostly farmers, making 66 new members this week. Everybody intending signing will confer a favor by sending their names in before the 24th inst. as every hundred names and fraction thereof means two more delegates accredited to Washoe county in the State Silver Convention. Wadsworth has now a membership of about one hundred and Reno has passed the 500 mark.

Peculiar

Many peculiar points make Hood's Sarsaparilla superior to all other medicines. Peculiar in combination, proportion, and preparation of ingredients, Hood's Sarsaparilla possesses the full curative value of the best known remedies of the vegetable kingdom. Peculiar in its strength and economy—Hood's Sarsaparilla is the only medicine of which can truly be said, "One Hundred Doses One Dollar." Medicines in larger and smaller bottles require larger doses, and do not produce as good results as Hood's. Peculiar in its medicinal merits, Hood's Sarsaparilla accomplishes cures hitherto unknown, and has won for itself the title of "The greatest blood purifier ever discovered." Peculiar in its "good name at home,"—there is now more of Hood's Sarsaparilla sold in Lowell, where it is made, than of all other blood purifiers. Peculiar in its phenomenal record of sales abroad, has no other preparation ever attained such popularity in so short a time, and retained its popularity and confidence among all classes of people so steadfastly.

Miss Mary Clark, who has been teaching the past year at Franktown, has been engaged to teach the school at Winnemucca Valley the coming year. Miss Clark is a last year's graduate of the Normal School.

Hon. Thomas Wren of Eureka, M. S. Bonnifield of Humboldt, W. O. H. Martin of Washoe, General J. E. Jones of Carson, D. B. Lyman of Virginia City and W. J. Westerfield of Lyon are among the names suggested for Presidential electors on the Silver ticket.

The Virginia Chronicle says Harry Chamberlain, who professes to be the son of the Dean of Canterbury, borrowed a shotgun and guitar in Virginia City without the consent of the owner, was arrested at Reno by Constable Upson, and Constable Hall will come to Reno this morning to take him to the Comstock for trial.

Democratic Boomers.

The special train carrying the California delegates to Chicago passed through Reno last night at 10:30 A large crowd congregated at the depot and eyed the distinguished braves as they sauntered around.

They mistook the large crowd for sympathizers for when they proposed three cheers for Cleveland the Nevadans yelled rats. Some intemperate individual suggested "what's the matter of Harrison" when a loud lunged individual promptly requested that Harrison be placed in oblivion. Among the prominent Democrats in the crowd were seen W. D. English, J. F. Sullivan, M. F. Tarpey John P. Irish and W. W. Foote. They were a jolly crowd and kept up a continuous yell interspersed with songs and cheers. They evidently thought Nevada was enthusiastically Democratic, for Billy Foote being called on assured the Nevadans that California would surely go for Cleveland, and seeing that it was received tamely added, "if you think that we are not for free silver you don't know us," which brought forth a yell of approval.

R. M. Clarke was the only delegate who left from here. The California men got a hold of our popular Tom Keating and were going to bodily kidnap him but he got out of their clutches.

President Jones, Robert Lewers and Prof. Miller left on the special for the East It was a jolly crowd.

Noteware of Carson, Grand Secretary; G. R. Walker of Winnemucca, Grand Chaplain; W. W. Stevens of Dayton, G. S. B.; C. W. Groves of Elko, G. S. B ; Albert Lackey of Gold Hill, S. J. D.; J. M. McCormack of Reno, J. G. D ; C. E. Mack of Virginia, G. O.; O. B. Vincant of Austin, G. M.; R. J. Reed of Eureka, and D. W. The next annual communication of the Grand Lodge will be held at Reno the second Tuesday in June, 1893.

A Sharp Practice

You call it when reading an interesting article and find at its close that you've read an advertisement. Don't condemn the advertiser. You won't read the ordinary advertisement. All advertisers feel this in common with the writer who takes this means of telling you that Simmons' Liver Regulator is the best medicine for malaria, impure blood, and a poisoned system. Equally as good for indigestion and biliousness.

THE MUSICALE.

The Thirty-Third Rehersal of the Department of Music of the Bishop's School.

Promptly at eight o'clock last night the curtain rose before a large and select audience at the Opera, who had assembled to listen to the annual musicale of the Bishop's School. The reputation of these musicales are sufficient to fill the Opera House, not only with Renoites but with visitors from Virginia and Carson. The curtain rose revealing a handsome and attractive stage setting. Banners adorned the wings of the stage, baskets of flowers and easels the stage.

The first number on the program was an instrumental duet, "Rhapsodie Hongrise," by the Misses Abrahams and Ridenour. The young ladies acquitted themselves most creditably.

Mrs. B. F. Layton took her place at the piano, and Miss Mable Stanaway, Reno's sweet young vocalist, appeared only to be met with a most enthusiastic greeting. In her usual sweet manner and rich and finely developed voice she sang "The Flower Girl " At the close of the song the audience expressed their appreciation by loud applause and were not content until she had appeared and bowed an acknowledgment.

Miss Stanaway was followed by the Misses Rule and Godfroy, who rendered an instrumental duet from "Il Trovatore." As the sweet strains of the music floated forth from the magic touch of skillful fingers one had but to close their eyes and visions of the opera and Patti would be before them. Even the generous and well deserved encore failed to bring them back.

A vocal octette followed entitled "The Peasant's Wedding March." It was sung by the Misses Lord, Evans, Morrison, Hurd, Monroe, Layton, Mesdames Hymers and Layton. The rendition was faultless and reflected great credit on their instructor.

The Misses Spencer and Ashby followed with an instrumental duet entitled "La Revel de Lion." The selection was a beautiful one and was rendered with faultless precision.

A vocal solo by Mrs. J. P. Porter ended the first part of the program. The solo was one of the gems of the evening, and the well known ability of the lady who sang it was sufficient with its sweetness to make the large audience insist on an encore.

Bishop Abiel Leonard, between the parts of the program, made a few remarks as to the work of the school. He stated that hereafter the Rev. Erasmus Van Deerlin would be the principal of the school as well as rector of Trinity Church. He stated that two of the present faculty would remain, namely Mrs. Layton and Miss McElroy, and that Mrs. Megquier, Miss Evans and Miss Sissa, whose excellent work had contributed so much to the success of the school in the past would retire. He said that the year had been one of the most successful in the history of the school. He said: "I have been requested to make a speech. It is a pleasure, inasmuch as I represent a number, who in consideration of her work in Trinity Church, desires to make Mrs. Layton a presentation. I also will for the time being be a gold bug, notwithstanding we so dearly love the Nevada silver, but we are sure under the circumstances that we will be forgiven, as it is for Mrs. Layton that, in behalf of Trinity Church, I present this package of gold."

The second part of the program was a song tournament. It was a picturesque and patriotic cantata by Geo. F. Root. It was interspersed with songs and choruses of different nations.

Miss Mae Wheeler impersonated the spirit of song and Dr. J. P. Porter took the part of a herald. The following well known talent took part in the production: The Misses Layton, Sabin, Wheeler, Stanaway, Martin, Bird, Owen, and Mesdames Layton, Porter and Hymers, and Messrs Porter and Evans and Master Frank Young.

The following parts were of unusual interest: "Merrie England," the opening chorus; the English quartette, "O Hush Thee, My Babie," by Mrs. Porter, Miss Layton, Messrs. Porter and Evans; "The Watch on the Rhine," a German chorus with herald was finely rendered; Master Frank Young in an Irish song, "The Wearing of the Green," with an effective Tyrolean chorus brought down the house. Master Frank Young is the pride of Reno. He has a beautiful voice and will, we all hope, some day be a second Dickey Jose.

The Spanish tambourine drill and song by sixteen young ladies was another number that added much to the general attraction of the cantata. It was picturesque, and their pretty costumes and sweet voices and their perfectly executed drill would have done credit to professionals.

Last winter Carson went into ecstacies over a fancy drill by sixteen young ladies. Virginia followed with its crack companies of school girls. The JOURNAL reporter witnessed performances on several occasions by each and also has seen a number of drills by the best of professional opera companies and must unhesitatingly award the palm of praise to the sixteen young ladies who last night, in their jaunty red dresses and black and white velvet bodices, went through with perfect precision a drill, the equal of which has never been seen in Reno Each had a tambourine and they presented a very pretty picture. Their marching and calesthenic attitudes were all peafectly poised. They were frequently interrupted with enthusiastic applause.

The Misses Sabin and Layton, in "Oh, Italia Beloved," a duet, were another pleasing number.

This was followed by the French chorus of masqueraders, who excited great merriment. It was a motley throng, presenting a grotesque appearance. They were encored.

The Scotch song and highland fling, by the Misses Clara Martin, Rosie Bird, Stella Owen and Hattie Layton, was neatly executed.

"Columbia," a solo by Miss Mae Wheeler a Southern song, "The Old Folks at Home" by Miss Mabel Stanaway, the Northern song, America's National airs, and "Home Sweet Home" closed the excellent program.

The audience was then dismissed and departed, each feeling that they had witnessed a program which for excellence and ability of the performers would be hard to duplicate in any town of Reno's size on the Coast.

NOTES FROM THE CAPITAL.

Blaine Forced to Resign—The Monetary Conference—Stewart's Free Coinage Bill—Favoritism in the Department.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 9, 1892.

EDITOR JOURNAL:—Sensation is no name for the furore created here by the resignation of Secretary Blaine, and it is raging to this late date with the same intensity with which it started. It was not, of course, entirely unexpected, owing to the persistency of at least two members of the Cabinet, Secretary Foster and Attorney General Miller, in publicly sneering at Mr. Blaine's accomplishments for this administration. Mr. Blaine is too high-strung a man to stand such treatment without protesting, and his resignation is a protest with a vengeance, for it will, if public opinion counts for anything here, place him in a position to defeat the President.

WHAT MIGHT HAVE BEEN.

It is believed that had Mr. Blaine been properly treated by the friends of Mr. Harrison, he intended at the proper time to have positively forbidden the use of his name as a candidate, and to have thrown his influence to the President, which would have resulted in Mr. Harrison's nomination by acclamation, but when Messrs. Foster, Miller and the small fry of the kitchen cabinet began to cast slurs in public interviews upon Mr. Blaine and his work and to boast of Mr. Harrison's ability to "down" Mr. Blaine in a stand up fight before the convention, as they did a few days ago. They aroused the fighting blood of one of the hardest political fighters this country has ever produced, and the result will be history. But the indications to-day are that it will be a chapter which would have been omitted had the President's foresight been equal to his hindsight, as the saying is. It is but another case to be added to many gone before in which the fool friends of public men have, by injudicious utterances, spoiled bright prospects.

THE MONETARY CONFERENCE.

President Harrison says that when the names of the United States delegates to the proposed International Monetary Conference are announced, all fair-minded people will be convinced that the strongest possible effort is to be made to secure an international agreement upon an agreed ratio and the opening of the mints of the world to the coinage of silver as freely as that of gold.

THE FREE COINAGE MEN

In Congress, while not disposed to harshly criticize the administration talk on the subject, are fully determined that nothing but a lack of votes, and that they do not anticipate shall prevent the passage of Stewart's free coinage bill, now under consideration in the Senate. No time has been set for taking a vote upon the bill, but Senator Morgan of Alabama, one of its staunchest advocates, has given notice that he will endeavor to press it to a vote between the 15th and 21st of this month. If he succeeds, and the chances are decidedly against him on account of the meeting of the Democratic National Convention on the 21st of this month and the desire of the Democratic Senators to attend, the bill will then go to the House, where the fight will be so bitter against it that nothing short of the much talked "clature rule" will insure its passage, and no man is in a position to say positively that such a rule will or will not be reported from the Committee on Rules.

FAVORITES IN THE BUREAUS.

The investigation of the Census Bureau has brought out one thing that was very well known before it ever began, that is, that some of the chiefs of divisions make favorites of the youngest and prettiest girls under them. The same state of affairs will be found in any other Government office where women in large numbers are employed. That should be investigated, and if Congress can suggest a real preventative for this sort of thing, it will make a display of wisdom far beyond public expectation. R.

PROTECT OUR BREAD.

The machinery of the law has not been put to work too speedily against the fraudulent use of ammonia and alum in Baking Powders. Both health and the pocket of the people are demanding protection. The legislatures of New York, Illinois and Minnesota have taken this matter of adulteration up, and especially that of Baking Powders. It will be in the interest of public health when their sale is made a misdemeanor in every State in the UNION, and the penalties of the law are rigidly enforced. There is no article of human food more wickedly adulterated than that of Baking Powder.

Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder is the only pure cream of tartar powder having a general sale that is free from ammonia, alum or taint of any kind of impurity. It makes the sweetest and lightest bread, biscuit and cake that are perfectly digestible whether hot or cold. It costs more to manufacture Dr. Price's than any other baking powder. It is superior to every other known and the standard for forty years.

Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder is reported by all authorities as free from Ammonia, Alum, or any other adulterant. In fact, the purity of this ideal powder has never been questioned.

A Strong Woman.

Mrs. John Ledalla, who came recently from the Fatherland and joined her husband on his fertile little farm in the country near Ansonia, Conn., is a large, buxom woman, and in view of an episode in which she and a burly tramp were the actors a day or two ago her neighbors declare that she is the strongest woman in Connecticut. Mrs. Ledalla had barely become settled on the farm when an ugly, vicious tramp darkened her door about the middle of the day while her husband was at work in the distant field and insolently demanded food and money. Mrs. Ledalla, who was busy about her household chores, was not scared, but she stopped sweeping her kitchen long enough to tell him that he would get no money and he had better get out.

"Won't, hey?" retorted the road knight. "Well, we'll see about that."

Whereupon he strode quickly into the room and sprang upon the woman, who promptly threw away her broom and defended herself. They wrestled in side hold style, then with square hold, and finally the tramp, who was not doing so well as he had expected, attempted to seize his antagonist by the throat, but with a quick muscular movement she eluded his grasp, and then [illegible] him in downright earnest. She finally pinned his arms to his side with a steel-like grip, whirled him right about face, shot him across the floor [illegible] and [illegible] him headlong out of doors. The [illegible] was as powerless as a child in her [illegible], and [illegible] dropped on his back in [illegible] yard.

Mrs. Ledalla, without taking the [illegible] to shut the door against him, [illegible] into the kitchen, picked up her [illegible] and resumed sweeping. The chap [illegible] had had quite enough athletic [illegible] for one day, evidently. He [illegible] himself off the ground [illegible] a time [illegible] the [illegible] to the shol- [illegible] [illegible] Naugatuck [illegible]

[illegible] Somerset on American Women.

"And now would you tell me a little [illegible] about women in America?" asked a [illegible] of Lady Somerset the day [illegible] returned from her long visit to New York. "Ah!" said Lady Henry Somerset with a smile, "that could not be told in a 'little bit.' It is an immense subject. The position of women in the States is on the whole very much better than [illegible]. It was delightful to see the [illegible] trains coming into the cities filled with young women who were all going happily to their employments, whether as clerks, typewriters, journalists, etc. How much better was it than if they had all been clinging to their homes with nothing to do and possibly nothing to live upon! It is looked upon as a recognized duty that every woman should be able to earn her own living.

"American women may marry or they may not; but marriage is fortunately not regarded as a profession. I was also very favorably impressed with the conduct of women at meetings. They might argue vehemently and disagree with each other during the meeting, but when it was all over the disputants would leave the hall arm in arm, chatting with each other on terms of perfect amity. In England such discussions would involve a personal quarrel. American women understand public affairs, but Englishwomen have yet to [illegible] that [illegible]—that is the difference."—London Queen.

If your failing teeth be shown

Value of a Cherry Tree.

A question as to the value of a cherry tree has just been decided at Niederlahnstein, in Germany. The ground whereon this cherry tree stands is required for the widening of a railway station at that place. The owner of the tree put in a claim for £180, which he said was the amount he obtained yearly for the fruit the tree yielded. After some spirited contention on both sides the owner somewhat reluctantly consented to accept £120.—Kolnische Zeitung.

Spring Is Here.

The approach of spring in Maine is thus heralded by a Kennebec newspaper: "Caterpillars were discovered last week by Brother-in-Law McFadden; robins, in flocks, by Jack Fardy, and singly by Charles Fogg; crows by Brother Carpenter; spirits frumenti by James Patrick; 7-inch trout by the editor; pussy willows by the schoolgirls, and new spruce gum by the schoolmarms."

A manufacturer in New York city has recently made brass andirons on the pattern of Washington's andirons now at Mount Vernon. They approach what is called the colonial style, being tall and slender, with claw and ball feet and small balls at the top.

The historic battlefield of Gettysburg is to be made accessible by an electric road. The line takes in all the important points in the second and third day's fights and when completed will be about eight miles long.

Racing With Wolves

Many a thrilling tale has been told by travelers of a race with wolves across the frozen steppes of Russia. Sometimes only the picked bones of the hapless traveler are found to tell the tale. In our own country thousands are engaged in a life-and death race against the wolf Consumption. The best weapons with which to fight the foe, is Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. This renowned remedy has cured myriads of cases when all other medicines and doctors had failed. It is the greatest blood-purifier and restorer of strength known to the world. For all forms of scrofulous affections (and consumption is one of them), it is unequaled as a remedy.

"German Syrup"

A Farmer at Edom, Texas, Says: "We are six in family. We live in a place where we are subject to violent Colds and Lung Troubles. I have used German Syrup for six years successfully for Sore Throat, Cough, Cold, Hoarseness, Pains in the Chest and Lungs, and spitting-up of Blood. I have tried many different kinds of cough Syrups in my time, but let me say to anyone wanting such a medicine—German Syrup is the best. That has been my experience. If you use it once, you will go back to it whenever you need it. It gives total relief and is a quick cure. My advice to everyone suffering with Lung Troubles is—Try it. You will soon be convinced. In all the families where your German Syrup is used we have no trouble with the Lungs at all. It is the medicine for this country. John Franklin Jones.

A Real Romance.

On the platform of a Pullman at the depot in Cheyenne, Wy., one morning an indolent looking chap in English togs and a pretty young woman in red conversed so earnestly that they attracted the attention of everybody within range. Several passengers were anxious to tell what they knew of the story of the interesting pair, and said that the man was a frank, honest fellow, who would talk willingly. Cards were exchanged, and his read, "Edward F. Griffin, Overseer Public Works Department, Hong-Kong."

He yielded his story like a major. Said he: "I am trying to persuade the girl here to stop off in Cheyenne and marry me, but she wants to go to Colorado Springs and see her folks about it first. This is a genuine romance, just like a novel. Eight years ago we were lovers in Vermont and were engaged. My parents were Irish emigrants and poor, and her people were well fixed. It was agreed that I should start out to make my fortune, and that she should wait ten years for me. She has been true, and she has waited like an angel. I worked in the Chicago stock yards, prospected in Colorado and tried a dozen things on the coast.

"Six years ago I landed in Hong-Kong. At first I was clerk in a wholesale house, then secured my present place. My salary is $5,000, and I make something on the side, as you say in America. All the time I have thought of the girl and knew she was single and thinking of me, though I never heard of her. She now lives at Colorado Springs and has been visiting with friends at Helena. We met in the car at Ogden and recognized each other at once. It was a pleasant meeting. Before the train had gone 100 miles we were engaged again and will be married at her home right away."

Griffin's story was corroborated by the girl.—Cor. St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

Natives Disappearing.

From the administrative report of the Andaman Islands for the past official year, which has recently been issued in Calcutta, it appears that the aborigines of the archipelago are disappearing so rapidly that Mr. Portman states the present generation may be considered as the last of the great Andaman tribe. All the people of Rutland Island and Port Campbell are now dead and very few remain in the South Andamans. Apart from the mortality from infectious diseases, it is said that the few children who are now born do not survive.

Mr. Portman is endeavoring to keep the tribe alive as long as possible, and he is collecting all the children at his house, where they are well fed and cared for; but this can only postpone for a short time the extinction of the race. For many centuries the people lived completely isolated from the rest of the world, but, like the Pacific Islanders, they seem unable to withstand contact with external civilization.—Galignani's Messenger.

Kept General Grant's Horses.

Sixty long years, with their sunshine and shadow, have passed since Mr. John T. Price, the well known liveryman, first saw the light of day, and all day Monday he was kept busy receiving congratulations on his golden jubilee. Mr. Price was born in Alexandria on April 11, 1832.

Having been in business at his present stand for twenty-seven years he is full of reminiscences of great Americans who patronized his fliers. Among these was General Grant, who came in one day and said: "Price, I want to take a spin over the road today. Let me have one of your fastest trotters." When the general returned he was profuse in his praise of the horse he had driven, and said:

"Price, that fellow was chain lightning itself."

General Grant's Arabian steeds, presented to him by the sultan of Turkey, were placed in Mr. Price's care when they first came here.—Washington Post.

The Dog Knew Where to Jump.

A very knowing dog got into the train which was coming down from up river, at Great Works, recently. The train started up and the dog still stand aboard. The train began to move faster and faster, until it was going at the rate of twenty miles an hour. The dog did not dare to jump. The animal got out on the lowest step. At last the train reached a swamp. He then gave a tremendous leap and landed in safety in the soft mud and water. The dog was uninjured and ran back.—Bangor News.

The Turtle Seed Tree.

Among a collection of curious plants recently received at the Kew Gardens, England, is a specimen of a curious tree from the Solomon islands. It is believed to be a new genus of the order of Sapotaceæ, to which the sapodiller of Florida belongs. The tree is known to the natives of the Solomon islands as the "turtle seed tree," on account of the close resemblance which the seeds bear to a turtle.—London Letter.

An Electric Launch.

A fine electric launch has just been built for the Earl of Dysart, which measures 55 feet in length and 8 feet 6 inches in beam. With her full equipment on board she will draw 2 feet 6 inches of water, and her speed will be 8½ to 9 miles an hour for seven hours. She is built of mahogany and teak, with omnibus seating on the roof of her capacious saloon.—New York Telegram.

A Strange Ordinance.

The city council of Salem, O., has passed an ordinance prohibiting girls from being on the streets after 8 o'clock at night. A number of the young men of the place are already preparing to leave and locate where the rights of the fair sex are not infringed upon by the city authorities.—Exchange.
